OUR LITURGY

FIRST READING

Isaiah 8:23-9:3

We hear a significant passage from the prophet Isaiah that operates in the life of the prophet, but is projected towards the coming of the future Messiah which is fulfilled in Jesus' earthly mission.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 26

R The Lord is my light and my salvation.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 1:10-13,17

We hear a very challenging text of St Paul in which he blasts the community at Corinth for the way they had become cliquey in following special groups and factions. The challenge is very real for our Church today.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Matthew 4:23

Alleluia, alleluia!

Jesus preached the Good News of the kingdom and healed all who were sick.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Matthew 4: 12-23

In Matthew's Gospel the call of his first disciples before beginning his public ministry to proclaim the kingdom of heaven is amongst us.

COMMUNION PRAYERS

PRAYER BEFORE RECEIVING COMMUNION

May the communion of Thy Holy Mysteries be neither to my judgment,
nor to my condemnation, O Lord,
but to the healing of soul and body. Amen

PRAYERS AFTER RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION

Send your Holy Spirit that, having with my mouth received the holy Sacrament,
I may by faith obtain and eternally enjoy your divine grace,
the forgiveness of sins, unity with Christ,
and everlasting life;
through Jesus Christ my Lord. Amen.

PRAYER BEFORE A CRUCIFIX

Good and gentle Jesus, I kneel before you.
I see and ponder your five wounds.
My eyes behold what David prophesied about you:
"They have pierced my hands and feet;
they have counted all my bones."
Engrave on me this image of yourself.

Our Parish is a Safeguarding Organisation

We are a Safeguarding Organisation which is committed to the care, wellbeing and protection of children, young people and adults at risk. We believe that all God's children, young people and adults at risk have the right to be healthy and safe, and to have their voice heard, respected and valued.

A Safe Environment for all.

WHERE IS GOD ASKING ME TO TRUST HIS TIMING?

Fr Denis Ssemuju

Jesus goes through Galilee quietly and faithfully—teaching, healing, and proclaiming the Kingdom of God.

He does not rush.

He does not hide.

He does not stop.

When danger appears, Jesus withdraws—not out of fear, but out of wisdom. He prays. He listens. Then He continues. This is true courage: trusting God's timing without needing to prove anything.

Let us pause and ask ourselves:

Where is God asking me to trust His timing?

In today's Gospel, Jesus says, "The Kingdom of heaven is at hand." The Kingdom is not far away. It is present now. Faith is lived in ordinary life—through kindness, honesty, forgiveness, and fidelity.

Let us pause again:

How am I living the Gospel in the small moments of my life this week?

As we gather on the eve of Australia Day, we are reminded that the Gospel is lived in the land where God has placed us. In a Church of many cultures and stories, prayer guides us to live with courage, peace, and care for one another.

Mary stood beneath the Cross, trusting God without understanding. May she teach us to wait without fear, to act without pride, and to live the Gospel with courage, guided by prayer and wisdom.
